Corinne Ethier

With Hockey Canada for over 5 years in various roles, Corinne is currently the Manager, Events & Properties. She is proud to represent a sport and an organization that is woven into the essence of Canadian culture that is recognized around the world. She previously worked with the Canadian Sport Institute Calgary and the Edmonton Oilers Hockey Club, and has a Bachelor of Business and Entrepreneurship, Sport and Recreation from Mount Royal University. She brings her diverse experience to Volunteer Alberta's Board, including volunteering as a mentor with Mount Royal University's Harry G. Schaffer Mentorship Program, chair of the Canadian Country Music Association, and with many other organizations. Corinne is a project manager, marketer, team leader, community builder, brand ambassador, communication specialist, sales representative, a traveler (46 countries and counting!) who is independent, resilient and resourceful. She has a passion for connecting people with experiences, coupled with a love for big-picture planning, dynamic environments and spreadsheets.

Dave Maffitt

Dave Maffitt is the current the Chair of the Volunteer Airdrie Society. Born in Calgary and raised on a small farm near Carstairs, he is an avid and lifelong volunteer. He joined Volunteer Airdrie in mid-2013, just as he was wrapping up a 6 year involvement with Airdrie Minor Basketball, including 5 years as its President. Dave was the Chairperson for the Basketball Sport at the Airdrie 2014 Alberta Summer Games, where he organized and supervised 75 volunteers at 4 venues over 3 days. When Dave is not volunteering, he finds time to work in the Calgary oil patch as an oil & gas marketing consultant for junior and intermediate exploration companies. His company Phoenix Energy Marketing Consultants currently assists about 25 companies. In his "spare time", Dave also teaches and trains in Shotokan karate at the Airdrie JKA Karate dojo and acts as Secretary for the Karate Alberta Association, Alberta JKA Karate Association and Airdrie Discovery Toastmasters Club.
